

13 DEC 1957

Mr. Wiley T. Buchanan
Chief of Protocol
Department of State
Washington, D. C.

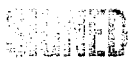

Dear Mr. Buchanan:

The three persons referred to in your letter of 6 December 1957 have not retired from the Government service and therefore their names should not be included in the omnibus authority bill to be submitted to Congress permitting the acceptance of foreign decorations.

Our records indicate that awards have been tendered by foreign governments to persons in CIA other than those named in your letter and that these decorations may be in the custody of one or more embassies.

STAT [redacted] Recorder of the CIA Honor Awards Board, will call on you at your convenience to discuss this matter with you.

Sincerely,

John S. Warner
Legislative Counsel
